

Episode 7: A Song of Healing

"But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays."

{ Malachi 4:2 }

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION

There are several images I've seen recently that have made me think about how we are facing these challenges globally. One image in particular that struck me was of Jesus, the great physician holding the nations of the earth, and another of Christ holding the earth with a banner which says, "for just such a time as this."

I also saw a poem, an imagined letter from COVID-19. It speaks of the busyness that's been brought to a halt and the quiet stillness we now find ourselves in. A phrase repeated throughout the poem were the words "We are not well". It actually brought tears to my eyes because it is a truth for us collectively, in body, mind, and spirit.

In these days when we can step back from things a little bit, we can lean into the embrace of the great Physician and ask Him to sing a song of healing over us all.

I continue to join you in prayer and solidarity in these days during which we know the Lord enfolds us. I pray the Lord restores you and continues to sing his song of healing over you.

Sing over us O Lord a song of healing.
Sing over us O Lord a truth we embrace.
Sing over us O Lord the word of your mercy and a song of your grace.

Let us be soothed by the sound of your voice
gently affirming 'do not be afraid,
do not be afraid.'

Sing over us O Lord a song of freedom
Sing over us O Lord the truth we believe.
Sing over us O Lord your Word of forgiveness which by grace we receive.

Let us be soothed by the sound of your voice
gently affirming 'do not be afraid,
do not be afraid.'
And in our yearning let our hearts rejoice for the healer comes to make us whole to make us holy.
