

Episode 10: Send Angels of Love

"Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, 'He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.'
For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways"

{ Psalm 91:1-2,11 }

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION

I've been doing this so long, not the live stream, but music ministry in general, and there are so many songs in the repertoire. However, thinking about ones you can do on your own when you're used to either being part of a duo or having the band around me is an interesting discipline. I've picked what many of us would consider a CJM classic to share with you tonight and it's got me thinking about angels.

I was reflecting on Psalm 91 and so many of the texts in scripture that echo the reflections we've been having these evenings are about the Lord enfolding us, about being under the shadow of his wings.

I love this image of the Lord's angels guarding and protecting us. This song has a lyric in it with this beautiful imagery of the angel protecting and guarding us. For some of us the imagery of our Father who protects is easier to get our heads around than others, but I think the language of God as our refuge and our shelter and our protection is what we need to hear in these days. To know that if we trust in Him, then all that we need will be provided.

My prayer for you this evening and in these days is that He will send His angels of love to hold and protect you.

Father of all,
lead us and guide us
The light of your word,
shining within us

Father, Father,
Father hear our prayer

Father of truth,
heal and renew us
Send angels of love
to hold and protect us.

Father of mine,
knowing completely
Each thought and dream
dwelling within me

Father, Father,
Father, father me
